How to Buy Sporting Goods Cheaply, • or Sell What You Don't Want

Ease Up on the "G-String" of Your Nerves.

You can't play ragtime on your nerves with overwork and get classical results. The golf links, tennis courts, polo grounds, trout streams and sylvan depths are calling to you. One of our Little Want Ads will bring just the sporting equipment you need for a "song." Golf-sticks, guns, nets, fishing tackle, dogs, tents—everything your heart desires, and your purse can afford, is waiting for the printed expression of your demand.

If you want to dispose of any of your sporting goods, then turn in the same direction—our Want Ads make up the market place for what you want to buy or sell. It will take five minutes to write the ad, and a few stray pennies to run it in these columns. But you must not wait.—To-day is the day—this is the right minute. There's always a trade waiting for you when you—keep in touch with the General Federation chairman, and see that their various subjects are represented on the program of the clubs next year. Already several fine programs have reached me, and the promise is for a most profitable season. Begin to plan now, to attend the convention in January, for we want this to be the best we have ever had. We must not drop back. Forward, must always be our slogan.

CLUB NOTES

I wish you one and all a pleasant, restful vacation, and I am certain we will come together again in the fall with renewed strength and fresh zeal, ready to take up the splendid work for which we are variously organized.

Cordially yours,
Margaret Wheeler Ross.

The Girls' Improvement club will meet Tuesday afternoon with Miss Ada Galbraith.

Mrs. John Dickinson Sherman, of Chicago, chairman of conservation of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, created a stir among the delegates assembled for the closing day's session of the mid-annual Council of the General Federation of Women's Clubs here when she declared that "Just as long as women of the federation wear feathers on their hats will they be open to the charge of incompetency."

The Glendale Woman's Club will shortly issue its annual year book. The program committee will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ira A. Moore, chairman of the Civics Education department and the details of the ensuing season's calendar completed.

The convention of the National Federation of Musicians clubs has attracted many Phoenixians to Los Angeles. Mrs. Arthur Gibbons Hulet, president of the Musicians Club, Mrs. William L. Finney are serving as delegates from here and others from Phoenix in attendance at the musical festival are Mrs. Roy Wayland, Mrs. Chester D. Reed, Mrs. H. B. St. Clair, Miss Fay DeMund, Miss Bertha Kirkland and Miss Helen Huberta Boyle. Mrs. A. E. Douglas and Mrs. Sam Hindman of the Tucson Saturday Morning Musical club who gave each a delightful concert when the State Federation met in Phoenix last winter, are also interested delegates. Mrs. L. E. Hewins, vice president for this district of the national organization and is in Los Angeles in her official capacity.

Arthur J. Westermeyer has donated fifty copies each of his oriental stories, "Udara" and "Rudra," to the War Children's Fund being raised by the American Club Woman. A copy of "Udara" has been sent Mrs. Henry D. Ross, president of the Arizona Federation, which Mrs. Ross will place at the disposal of the club women during the summer.

Eva MacDonald Valesh, national chairman of the fund and editor of the Club Woman magazine, in writing Mrs. Ross in referring to the book, said:

"I feel sure you will read it with pleasure and if it serves as a little reminder of the needs of the war children of Europe to you or your friends to whom you may loan it, we will be satisfied."

"This may seem rather a novel way of dealing with the subject, but the author made the gift freely and I know that an interesting book may fulfill its mission in more than one way."

The Woman's club of Casa Grande will arrange a lecture course for next winter. The value of the course is no longer denied and practically every club now endeavors to enlist speakers, if not from the university extension course, from among well known men and women of the state. Dr. von Kleinsmid, president of the University of Arizona, is a popular lecturer with clubwomen.

Maricopa is to have a new school house of two rooms—one for school building and the other to be used by the Woman's club. The Woman's club of that place was organized to help the educational standard of the community and the school house is the tangible result.

ARCHDUKE FREDERICK

I have met the commanders of many armies, but never have I been more impressed than by the simple, kindly forcefulness of Archduke Frederick, commander-in-chief of the Austrian army, a man whose many years of military service give him many advantages over most other men in experience of military affairs.

He is a man slightly below the average height (which seems to be the rule with so many of the great military leaders of the world), of a particularly cordial and sympathetic manner. His resemblance to Emperor Franz Josef is quite remarkable, both in manner, personality and appearance.

I felt instantly that the mothers of Austria and Hungary must feel that their sons are in good keeping in his hands and that not an unnecessary life will be lost.—J. F. J. Archibald in Scribner's Magazine.

LODGE LORE

Odd Fellows

At the last meeting of Phoenix lodge, No. 2, I. O. O. F., there were several new linkers added to the triple link of Phoenix Odd Fellows lodge. Work in the initiatory degree next session. The new officers will be installed the first meeting night in July. A cordial invitation will be extended to all the valley lodges. The incoming officers were elected as a committee to look after the refreshments on that occasion. All visiting brethren who sojourn in the city are requested to participate on installation night as well as any other meeting.

It goes a great way toward making a lodge by faithful attendance by the faithful ones. Do let them know that you appreciate it.

If we strive the harder, our success will be the greater.

How often did you attend lodge during June?

Shoulder to the wheel stuff is the kind that wins.

Team work is necessary.

The policy and purpose of these columns is to "ever help and never harm" the readers.

Language was given to us that we might say pleasant things to each other.

The most comforting balm that can come to the true fraternal man is the reflection that no matter under what stress he may labor, there is somewhere some one who loveth him unselfishly and faithfully. Let us all strive to be worthy of this boon.

The homes of a nation are its strongest forts.

D. O. K. K.

The next ceremonial of El Yemamah Temple, No. 65, will be held in Prescott on Saturday evening, July 3. Brother James Gilbert of Jerome and Sharp-nack of Prescott report tyros a-plenty for a joint ceremonial in Prescott on the above date. A rate of $5.50 for the round trip has been secured. Train leaves Santa Fe depot at 7:20 a. m. Saturday morning, July 3. A big time is in store for all attending this ceremonial.

Knights of Pythias

Interest centers around our big time at Riverside Park next Tuesday evening. The affair was originally started by Purity Temple, No. 9, and has since been enlarged to include all Knights of Pythias and their families. This affair is to be exclusively for Knights of Pythias, their families and Pythian Sisters, and must be so understood by all members in order to avoid embarrassments. The "Mulligan" will be served at 6:30 p. m. and all those who are not there at 6:30 p. m. may miss out on the stew. The Knights have volunteered to furnish the birds for the "Mulligan," and this is the plan mapped out at our last meeting. All knights who care should furnish their full quota of birds (25 doves per man), and same should be in not later than Monday night. Those furnishing birds should leave them at the W. H. Constable Ice and Cold Storage Co., located at the corner of Fourth avenue and Jackson streets, where they will be put on cold storage until such time as the committee shall collect them, which will be early Tuesday morning.

weather fall far below those of the winter months, still many brave the warm weather to enjoy good dancing. In order to give the Old Faithfuls, those who attend lodge every Saturday night, a chance to have a Saturday night to themselves during the hot weather, it was decided at last night's meeting that during the summer months and until October 1, we would meet every other Saturday night as heretofore. Only short sessions of the lodge will be held on these nights, the meetings closing promptly at 5. Social dancing will follow the close of the meetings and visitors are more than welcome. No admission will be charged and everyone who attends is assured a good time.

The Fraternal Brotherhood

At our last regular meeting, several applications for membership were favorably passed on and one new member initiated.

Although our dances during the hot ing to become a member of a good sound order that is noted not only for its soundness, but for its sociability, should lose no time in visiting us and getting acquainted. Getting acquainted and initiated into membership have always proved simultaneous happenings in this order. Next social night, Saturday July 10. You're invited.

WHY LOOK?

"Where do we find the most mischievous of men?" exclaimed the exhorter fervently.

"You don't have to find him," responded the man in the fourth row, center, "he hunts you up and tells you all about it.—Philadelphia Public Ledger."

The doll is the most ancient of toys. Examples have been found in the graves of the children of ancient Rome, and they are known to have been in use before that time.
